COVID-19 Housing Resources

The Chatham Affordable Housing Trust created a temporary 12-month emergency rental assistance program.

This program is administered by Housing Assistance Corporation. Even if you've never qualified for public assistance, if you have had an increase in expenses or a decrease of income due to the pandemic, you may be eligible for help.

Information for Homeowners

- Homeowners: contact your lender and request forbearance. Under the law, unless you and your lender agree otherwise, missed monthly payments will be added to the end of the loan term
- Residential mortgage borrowers can obtain a forbearance on their mortgage payments for up to 180 days

The Chatham Coronavirus Impact Fund is a short-term financial assistance program for year-round Chatham residents. If you are struggling due to reduced employment or financial difficulties as a result of COVID-19, this fund is designed to help with:

- Mortgage / Rent / Utilities
- Car payments
